

The American Martial Arts Alliance (IAMA Credentialing Organization)

Redesigned in 2005 by Grandmaster Daniel Coblenz.

Organized in 1995 as the American Martial Arts Alliance, this Indiana based organization is headquartered in Greensburg, Indiana. This organization founder is Grandmaster Daniel Coblenz, 7th Dan Black belt in Tae Kwon Do & 4th Dan Master in Kali & Silat.

Currently, the AMAA offers Gup, Black Belt & Instructor credentials and organization memberships.

Schools may become chartered with the AMAA, which qualifies each student to participate in the AMAA sanctioned tournaments. The AMAA sponsors three local open tournaments a year and an annual State Championship. Indiana Academy of Martial Arts is proud to be a part of this organization that promotes an atmosphere of fair competition for its students.
